

PRELUDE TO THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Photographs by Nicole Bourgeois

Tina Johns Heidrich, above, directs the Connecticut Master Chorale last weekend in its Holiday Prelude Concert, which is held annually at St. Mary Church because of its superior acoustics. The Brookfield resident is the founder, director and conductor of the chorale, which has performed at the White House in Washington, D.C., and Carnegie Hall, among other venues. Several Bethel residents are members of the chorale. For another photograph, see Page 4.

Bethel Beacon - 11/23/07

Photograph by Nicole Bourgeois

The Connecticut Master Chorale fills St. Mary Church with holiday sounds last weekend, during the choral group's annual Holiday Prelude Concert.